HARLAY AVOCATS ACTS AS COUNSEL TO FLEXLIVING IN A €1.6 MILLION FINANCING ROUND

Founded in 2021, Flexliving, a company whose aim is to offer a flexible housing solution for mobile workers, raises 1.6 million euros in funding to increase its expansion by continuing to redefine corporate housing 2.0

Co-founded in 2021 by Caue Brioli, Alexandre Marcadier and Lionel Bodénès, Flexliving aims to offer an innovative, flexible housing solution to meet the growing needs of companies and mobile workers. Its solution is based on a dedicated platform enabling users to choose and book their accommodation for the desired duration.

In addition to these corporate housing solutions, Flexliving has developed a unique solution on the market: the HyperFlex housing subscription, enabling companies to take out a monthly subscription for their relocated employees.

This €1.6 million financing round in which Clément Alteresco (Morning) and a business angles club led by Henri de Lorgeril (Avizio), including the founders of GetAround, Unkle, Playplay, BackMarket and Spendesk, participated will enable Flexliving to pursue its technological and commercial development (launch of the Flexliving Business platform, strengthening of its real estate portfolio) and to recruit new talents.

Salim Bencheikh (partner) advised Flexliving on this financing round.
