HARLAY AVOCATS ADVISES CONVELIO ON ITS SERIES C FUNDING ROUND

Convelio has completed a Series C funding round to accelerate its international expansion and further enhance its technology platform for fine art logistics.

Founded in Paris in 2017 by Edouard Gouin and Clément Ouizille, Convelio specializes in fine art logistics, providing transportation, storage, and operational coordination services to galleries, auction houses, and collectors worldwide.

This Series C round was led by a prominent French entrepreneurial family active in the global art market. Historical investors Forestay Capital, Mundi Ventures, and Acton Capital also participated in the financing round.

This investment will help Convelio accelerate the next phase of its journey: expanding from two to five specialised storage facilities globally, starting with New York this coming September, while continuing to invest in the technology behind a more seamless art logistics experience.

Salim Bencheikh (partner) and Alexandre Jean-Baptiste (associate) advised Convelio on this Series C funding round.
